ADDITIONAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS No purchase necessary. Nominators (persons submitting a nomination) and nominees must legally reside within New York, New Jersey or Connecticut. All nominators must be 18 or older. All nominees must be living as of the date the nomination is submitted and the date on which they are required to sign an Affidavit of Eligibility and Publicity/Liability Release, as discussed below. Nominators may nominate more than one person, but each nomination must be submitted separately with a separate essay. Employees (and their immediate family members) of NYP Holdings, Inc, d/b/a the New York Post ("Sponsor") and its agents are not eligible to be nominators of nominees. Nominations will be judged by a panel of judges chosen by Sponsor, which will include representatives from Sponsor. Judges' and Sponsor's decisions on all contest matters, including interpretation of contest rules, are final. Eight (8) winning nominees (one for each of the eight listed categories) will be determined on or about October 8, 2008 (and will be notified soon thereafter) based on the unique and/or creative contributions or actions that nominee has performed which distinguish him/her. Sponsor reserves the right to require substantiation of the claims contained in any nomination, and to disqualify a nominee/nomination if such claims cannot be substantiated. Nominator must obtain the consent of the nominee (and the consent of the parent/legal guardian of nominee if nominee is under 18) to his/her nomination prior to submission of entry materials. No reciprocations of nominations is allowed (e.g., a person is nominated by someone cannot, in turn, nominate that person and Sponsor reserves the right to disqualify such nominations. Selected winning nominees (and their nominators) will be required to sign an Affidavit of Eligibility and Publicity/Liability Release as directed by Sponsor, or be disqualified. If a selected winning nominee is a minor under applicable law, his/her parent must also sign the Affidavit of Eligibility and Publicity/Liability Release. Winners must be available to attend all functions that center around or on the date of the Liberty Medals event on October 22, 2008.
